Re: Ashley T. Adams v. Integrity Staffing, et al.,
Civil Action No. 05-249-KAJ

Dear Judge Jordan:

We represent Integrity Staffing Solutions, Inc. ("Integrity"), Dawn Harper-Smith, J.P. Morgan Chase ("Chase") and Cheryl Denny. We wrote to the Court on January 20, 2006 concerning Ms. Adams' failure to retrieve documents sent to her by certified mail, which the Court had directed, and requesting guidance from the Court as to how we should communicate with her.

We write to inform the Court that we spoke with Ms. Adams by telephone yesterday to arrange a time to discuss the parties' Rule 26(f) and Rule 16 obligations. We also discussed the correspondence sent to Ms. Adams by certified mail and returned to us as "unclaimed."

We believe we have worked out the communications difficulties. Ms. Adams asked that we send correspondence to her using first-class mail instead of certified mail so that she does not have to travel to the post office to retrieve our correspondence. We began sending mail to Ms. Adams via certified mail to ensure that she was receiving our pleadings after she indicated to the Court that she had not received several filings in the case, including the motions to dismiss on behalf of Ms. Harper-Smith and Ms. Denny.

From this point forward, we intend to serve Ms. Adams by regular mail unless the Court directs us to use certified mail or we again have difficulty communicating with her.

Respectfully submitted,

Sean P. McDevitt
